

Sand Cat

- Lives in the Desert
- Nocturnal
- Tan in Color for Camouflage
- Eats small rodents, insects, and reptiles

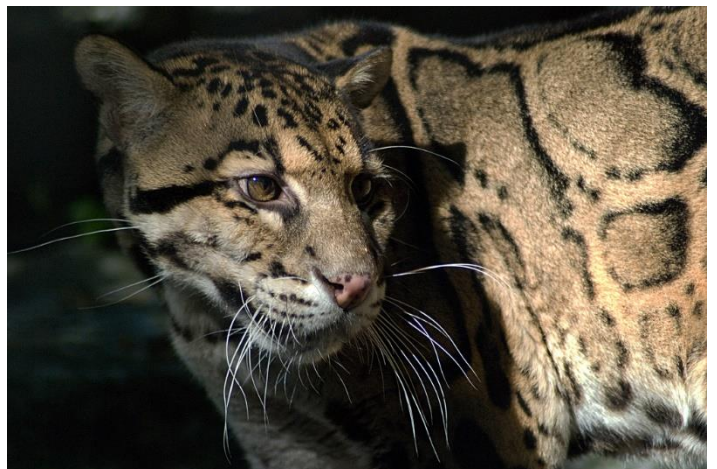

Cougar

- Lives in North, Central, and South America
- Feeds on larger prey animals, such as white-tailed deer
- Can weigh up to 225 lbs.

Clouded Leopard

- Lives in Southeastern Asia
- Coat has cloud-like spots for camouflage
- Climbs trees
- Eats large mammals and birds

Black-footed Cat

- Lives in Southern Africa
- One of the world's smallest cats
- Small black spots and stripes help it camouflage at night

Cheetah

- Lives in the African savanna
- Fastest animal on land
- Covered in black spots for camouflage
- Can weigh up to 120 lbs.

Fishing Cat

- Lives in Southeastern Asia
- Primarily hunts fish
- Has webbed feet and waterproof fur for swimming
- Covered in black spots for camouflage

